

ASHLEY HALL

TRUMPET

Trumpeter Ashley Hall has dazzled audiences worldwide with her virtuosic technique and expressive tone, being described as “pure magic to hear.” An active soloist and orchestral musician, she holds the positions of principal trumpet with the Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra and third trumpet with the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra. Her 2010 solo highlights included a featured position on the opening gala of the International Trumpet Guild Conference in Sydney, Australia, and two solo appearances with the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra.

Ms. Hall released her debut album in 2007 entitled, "Behold Him", a collection of hymns for solo trumpet. As a worship artist she has given ministry concerts in the United States, Germany, Australia, India, Mexico and China. Ms. Hall is active in educational outreach and has presented hundreds of programs through the Muse Machine and the Dayton Philharmonic's SPARK program. She is on faculty at the University of Dayton and maintains a private teaching studio in the Cincinnati and Dayton areas.

Ms. Hall proudly endorses Vincent Bach Trumpets and GR Mouthpieces.